Susan's message to the McGovern family:

"Bob and Jerome McGovern helped save my family and the people of South Korea from the grips of North Korea's brutal communist regime during the Korean War. Through their courageous service and sacrifices, South Korea was saved from communist oppression and thus I was able to be born to a free nation of South Korea after the war. With every beat of my heart, I know that my life is possible because of the immeasurable sacrifices they made. I am forever grateful to Bob and Jerome and to the McGovern family for giving me my life and my cherished freedoms.

Every day, I thank God for all the great American heroes who laid down their precious lives to save us. We, Koreans will never be able to repay all that was given and sacrificed for our freedoms. But, I will do all I can, to honor the American fallen heroes and their families by educating people about the heroes and history of the Korean War.

Bob and Jerome and all who gave their precious lives to save the Korean people, will never be forgotten. We will always remember the tremendous cost of our freedoms and that Freedom is NOT free.

I am so deeply sorry for all the pain your family endured in losing Bob and Jerome. I hope you are comforted in knowing that Bob and Jerome served with great courage and left behind a great legacy of freedom for millions of Koreans like me.

May Bob and Jerome rest in eternal peace and honor.

May God always bless the McGovern family and all the families whose loved ones were killed in the Korean War.

With the deepest of condolences and never-ending love and gratitude, Susan Kee"
